

ecology loves economy

Car parts made with BASF plastics can be used instead of metal parts to make vehicles lighter and therefore more fuel-efficient. This means lower emissions, less fuel consumption and less money out of people's pockets. When preserving the environment agrees with not upsetting your finances, it's because at BASF, we create chemistry.

www.basf.com/chemistry

BASF

The Chemical Company